

The District honored 64 finalists at its annual Excellence in Education awards dinner on February 4. The night concluded with the announcement of the 2019-2020 top educators in each category. The winners were:

- Classified Employee of the Year: Annette Montague from School Leadership
- Certificated Elementary Educator of the Year: Ivette Jauregui from Leavenworth Elementary
- Certificated Middle School Educator of the Year: Christine Felder from Sequoia Middle School
- Certificated High School Educator of the Year: Benjamin Akioyame from Hoover High School
- Administrator of the Year: Rebecca Wheeler, Hoover High Principal

Annette, Ivette and Rebecca will represent Fresno Unified at the Fresno County Educator of the Year awards in November.
