Fresno Unified will honor 46 finalists and announce five winners during its annual Excellence in Education celebration. The finalists were nominated by their peers for exemplary work in serving students and the district. Winners will be announced from classified employees, elementary educators, middle school educators, high school educators and administrators.

“Our annual Excellence in Education dinner is a much-anticipated event because it is a chance to celebrate together, and honor the best of the best in our district who are dedicating their careers to building futures for our students,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
