

Hello Edison Parents

Happy Mother's Day to all the Tiger Mothers. May your day be full of love and joy. One day is not enough to celebrate your impact on families. You are much appreciated and irreplaceable.

Shout out to student leadership for organizing the teacher celebration activities last week. Teachers appreciated the acknowledgement and recognitions. Plus, it looks like they had a lot of fun too.
AP Exams – AP Spanish exams in person on Tuesday 7:30am – 2:00pm.

Attention Juniors this week you are taking the SBAC Math Performance task. Remember SBAC for 11th grade includes the Early Assessment Program (EAP) portion for California State Universities (CSU). SBAC scores are an important component of how students can qualify for exemption from the Early Start program requirements. Get rest the night before and do your best.

Seniors need to continue to check their Fresno email daily to stay informed about very important senior information

Seniors. We will be having a senior meeting this Wednesday, May 12th from 2:00-3:00, via teams to give you end of the year information, senior check-out information, graduation details and guidelines, Jostens information about cap & gowns, and final senior events. Check your Fresno email on Monday and Tuesday for the meeting link. There is a lot of important information, you don't want to miss.

Attention seniors. There are plans in place to help support seniors who are in danger of failing and not graduating. Please take advantage of these supports. Counselors are connecting with 12th graders to offer support. If you need assistance, please email your counselor. Parents if you need any information regarding supports or concerns about your child's academic status do not hesitate to contact us at 559-457-2650

Seriously important information about Emergency Cards (EC) – I am leaving this message to remind parents about turning in Emergency Cards. Having an EC on file for each student is critical to the safety and well-being of your child. It is particularly vital during emergency situations which is more significant now than ever before with the presence of COVID-19. Many students still have not returned an EC. During their second period, students will receive another EC that needs to be completed, signed by parents and returned to their second period teacher. In the interim and until we receive signed ECs, those students without an EC card on file are required to fill out a temporary EC so we have important contact information in the event of an emergency. Parents you can also complete a digital emergency card in ATLAS. The ATLAS Personal Account allows parents to update contact information, access your FUSD children with one single log-in and manage emergency card information.

Creating a Personal Account in ATLAS

- Go to the ATLAS Parent Portal - <https://parents.fresno.org/Home/>
- If you need your login information, you can find it printed on your student's report card or contact the main office at 559-457-2650
- Once logged into the Parent Portal, under Parent/Guardian in the upper right corner of the screen, click the arrow and select Create Personal Account

- Follow the steps to create your Personal Account

Once you have created your Personal Account, please ensure your contact information is current. You can complete the online emergency card for your child in this portal. Emergency Cards are a mandatory requirement in order to start classes in school.

Attention Seniors. If you have not ordered your cap & gown, please make sure to do so by going to the Jostens website or by calling Jostens. Check your emails daily for more details and updates. Email Mrs. Rubio if you have any further questions

TIP OF THE WEEK:

Take care of yourself and get some sleep. Below is a student's perspective about sleep.

I can see how trying to stay ahead on studying, participate in extracurriculars, and spend time with friends is extremely overwhelming. A lot of my friends, in their efforts to do everything all the time, forgot to do basic things to care for themselves. This tip may not specifically fit in with any of the three goals, but if kids fail to maintain their health, then none of the goals can be accomplished. We still must eat enough healthy foods, exercise or maybe meditate, and have good sleep schedules.

In my opinion, sleeping is the most difficult one to tackle for high schoolers; it took me some time to get it down, but there's a couple of things I do to help. Everyone knows it disrupts your sleep cycles to look at your electronics before bed, but most kids (including me) aren't willing to stop using Snapchat or scrolling through Twitter as they lay in bed at night. When I'm doing this, I put my phone on "Night Shift" mode, so the screen is tinted more red than blue (the blue light is what disturbs your REM cycles). For my computer, I have f.lux, which automatically changes the tint of the screen from blue to red depending on the time of day. This is much easier on the eyes, and it's healthier for my sleep cycles.

If I'm trying to fall asleep and can't, some great resources are Calm and Headspace. They are aimed at relaxing the mind so I can get the rest I need for school or sports. Since most of us are addicted to our electronics anyways, taking advantage of the many assistive apps and websites can help us get to bed at a reasonable hour. After School Program

The After-School Program will continue to take place through a distance learning platform when we return to in-person instruction on April 6th. This decision was made in the best interest of students and staff regarding facilities use, contact tracing and to allow school sites to focus their efforts on a safe reopening of schools. As students return to in-person instruction on April 6, 2021, rest assured that families will still have the same opportunity to continue accessing After School Programs virtually through Microsoft Teams. The Afterschool Program components and opportunities available to students will continue to include virtual homework assistance and enrichment activities. The ASP hours remain at 2:30pm-4:30pm on Microsoft Teams. If students are interested in the ASP, please have students provide their names, emails, and IDs to our ASP Coordinator Daniela Fis at daniela.fis@fresnounified.org so she can add them to the ASP or contact Ms. Souryasack at 457-2650.

Check your fresnou email every day

Check your WaaGs - Week at a Glance for each class

Class begins every day at 9am sharp.
